NOTES FOR 1906.

NOTES FOR 1906.

THE AUTOMATIC
SELF-REGISTERING
POCKET NOTE BOOK.

PATENTED.

NO SEARCHING FOR ENTRY.

The Page last written upon immediately found on opening the book. Made in all qualities.

"Perhaps one of the distinctive marks of the Victorian era is the saving of time, just as the saving of money was one of the features of the Elizabethan period. Everyone welcomes an aid to the economy of time, and for this reason will be glad to know of a new form of notebook, in which the page last used is displayed on opening by a patent method which entitles Messrs. T. J. Smith, Son and Downes to the gratitude of all busy people. This capital arrangement entails also the keeping of a pencil in the inside of the book, which is a decided advantage. These self-registering note books can be obtained in various styles and sizes, and are bound as charmingly as a Prayer Book. They will be a positive incentive to become a 'chiel amang ye takin' notes.'" — "The Illustrated London News."
